

Across

- 4 The quarter of the shire where Sam's cousin Hal goes hunting
- 8 Also called Amon Sûl, the Hill of Wind; Frodo was

Down

- 1 Gondor's domain east of the Great River, which Boromir reports has been lost to forces of Mordor
- 2 The mountain

- wounded here
- 9 Founded by Elrond, also called Rivendell
- 10 Called the Great River, which also goes through Gondor
- 15 This village, which has an excellent inn, sits at the crossroads of the Great East Road and the old North Road
- 17 When they returned, they saw trees along the _____ Road were cut down
- 18 The Farthings are divided into folklands; this one bears the name of one of Pippin's ancestors
- 21 A dark and tangled forest, which Merry and Pippin found "dim and stuffy"
- 22 The city wherein stands Meduseld, the Golden Hall of Théoden
- 24 The community just across the Brandywine River ferry, where Brandy Hall sits
- 25 Two-word name for a tower that Sam thinks was built to keep enemies inside Mordor
- 27 Named the "Tower of Guard," this two-word city has seven concentric walls to hinder challengers
- where the Fellowship was forced back by snow
- 3 Legolas's home resides in this forest
- 5 Another name for the volcanic Mount Doom
- 6 The stream the Fellowship crossed before being caught by guards in Lórien
- 7 Another name for the Haunted Mountain, in which was the Door of the Dead
- 11 A river that runs through Isengard and the gap of Rohan, out to the sea
- 12 Théoden died at the battle of _____ Fields
- 13 The Great River falls from Emyr Muil to marshlands below; over these falls went the funeral boat of Boromir
- 14 The inner tower of Isengard
- 16 The quiet homeland of the hobbits
- 19 A now-ruined city by the Great River; Boromir barely escaped as it was overrun by forces of Mordor
- 20 Mount Doom stood upon this flat expanse of plateau (sometimes called plains)

- 28 Two regions of Rohan are the Westfold and the _____. Merry was told the miasma from Mordor had covered the second.
- 29 Named the "Pillars of the Kings;" vast grey statues of Isildur and Anárian face each other across the Great River
- 30 Another name for the "Tower of Guard" used in Rohan
- 23 The large north-western region that encompasses the hobbit homeland and other countries and peoples
- 26 Maps rarely show this southern kingdom, merely saying "Near _____." Wild and warlike seafarers live in this kingdom.